Goddess of Anarchy

The LIFE and TIMES of LUCY PARSONS AMERICAN RADICAL
JACQUELINE JONES

"Goddess of Anarchy" debuts in the pages of a master historian, taking the reader to both post-Civil War Texas and to Gilded Age Chicago.

"With remarkable research and insight, the distinguished historian Jacqueline Jones has recovered the life and thought of an extraordinary historical figure who we barely know."

"Lucy Parsons was a unique figure in the history of the American left... Jacqui Jones, one of our nation's most distinguished historians, fills her narrative of this remarkable life with both the vivid drama and the critical understanding it deserves."

MICHAEL KAZIN, author of The Great Upheaval
