GIMME SHELTER

FORTRESS AMERICA

How We Embraced Fear and Abandoned Democracy
 ELAINE TYLER MAY

"Few historians have probed the hidden undercurrents of the Cold War as perceptively and brilliantly as Elaine Tyler May.... A major contribution and a must-read to understand the origins of the Age of Trump."
 —MARTIN J. SHEERWIN, Pulitzer Prize-winning coauthor of American Prometheus

"America founded itself on the principles of life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, but for much of the last century, it has been increasingly seized by fear, suspicion, and anxiety. Elaine Tyler May has provided a lucid, accessible, and sweeping account of this national nervous breakdown."
 —SAMUEL FREEDMAN, Columbia University

"A must-read for anyone seeking to understand the anxieties that occupy American politics."
 —PUBLISHERS WEEKLY, starred review
